Gentlemen of West London CC 1988-2024

The Gentlemen of West London Cricket Club (“The Gents”) was founded in 1988 by Mark Ashton and has played 700 games, excluding a 1993 T20 against Enterprise whose multi-coloured scorecard was annoyingly lost. Nor does the batting card survive from the second game, against East Harrow Cheetahs in 1988, though oddly the bowling card does. Otherwise records are complete as far as we know. This publication documents the exceptional: the cover picture shows J. Small (131*) and S. Kumar (74*) being clapped off by St Anne’s Allstars in June 2015 after posting the club’s highest stand of 212 in 22.5 overs, a recovery from the depths of 56-5.

A total of 438 players have made 7,689 appearances. The 21 members of the 100 Club have played 3,792 times; 23 have played 50-99 and there have been 165 singletons. When Decade was published in 1997 one could recall every guest but this is no longer possible. More than a third of the games took place at Victoria RG in Surbiton (133) and Old Tenisonians CC in Motpur Park (98). Most matches were played in the 35-overs format.

Career performances are on the website in the GWLCC Career 1988-2024.xlsx file. We list the Top 10 in each category later. Summarised scorecards for each opponent and ground are shown in GWLCC Results 1988-2024.xlsx and GWLCC Results 1.pdf for you to search or pivot away to your heart’s content. Some errors may have eluded proofreading. The squad is keen-eyed on such matters, so please let us know if you find any.

New records created in 2024 are highlighted yellow.

The President’s Cup 1992-2001 was a T20 competition held on the Sunday before the August Bank Holiday. It was the brainchild of New Barbarian Weasels’ founder, the late W. Flack, and predated the first English professional T20 by 11 years. Three sides participated in a round-robin format.

The Bob Ashton Memorial Cup was contested 1990-2011 between Gents and West XI and retired when West XI amalgamated with Walthamstow Horizontals to form Judd Street Tigers, rebranded before the 2019 season as Winchmore Hill Tigers. Derby Fever.pdf (see website under The Gent, Reviews and Records) recalls this hard-fought, entertaining series.

The Pals League was contested 2002-2007. Gents, New Barbarian Weasels, 12 Angry Men, Urban Associates, Pak and, for one season, West XI participated. Since 2011 only friendlies have been played.

Initials of forenames are supplied to distinguish between, for example, the five Joneses, eight Khans, 21 Patels and four Wrights who appear in the scorebooks.

Two Gents who shared only 46 caps 2008-2013 but had a lasting influence. Batting all-rounder S. Rudru (left in tour T-shirt) and bowling all-rounder A. Iqbal.

New Barbarian Weasels appear frequently in this publication. At their peak in the mid- to late-90s, the Home Office boys were one of the strongest teams on the circuit and certainly the best organised. Ernie Tattersdill (back row second from right) was an exceptional all-rounder, and in 1997 became the first opponent to score a 50 and take four wickets in one game.

Bill Flack, resplendent in bow tie and waistcoat (back row third from left) was the first captain and a fine cricketer and innovator (see p2 President's Cup). He would later play four times for the Gents, taking nine wickets with his off-breaks. To his left in the black blazer is Simon Lloyd.

From row far left is Ulsterman and glovesman Jim Patrick, two away from gentle giant Jeremy Best, who scored 103 against the Gents in 1991 and hit the ball as hard as any player can have done.

Weasels continue to this day. Those great gentlemen Bill Flack, Simon Lloyd and Ernie Tattersdill have since died.

Fastest 50 and 100, and sixes

Fastest 50 16 balls	G. Cloete (left) v. Cairns Fudge (Wandsworth Common, 28.4.13) out of 81 scored off 27 balls
Fastest 100 41 balls	G. Cloete v. London Saints (Old Tenisonians CC, 18.5.14) out of 111 scored off 44 balls

Since the days of Frank Gallagher in the 1980s and early 1990s few scorecards have recorded every ball faced by a batsman. However, particularly brisk 50s and 100s have been reconstructed from the original scorebooks to confirm the records. On 28.4.13 Praveen Bocha hit the then-fastest Gents 50 off just 21 balls before ceding the record 20 minutes later to Gregg Cloete, who despite looking likely to give up the ghost to the cold at any moment clubbed his first 52 off only 16, facing just 27 balls in total for his 83. Later in 2013, Owais Khalid also went to 50 in 21 balls against Salix as did Srinivas Namilikonda against Crossbats in 2019. Sixes have only been included in the end-of-season statistical round-ups since 2009.

Wickets in a season

The totals indicate that it has become harder to bag a large haul of wickets.	43	S. Snelling 1999
No bowler has taken more than 30 in a season since 2011.	41	H. Patel 2010
	40	S. Snelling 1997
There are three reasons for this: the Gents play on better pitches than 20 years ago (at Fairfield RG of blessed memory, the average innings by opponents in 2008 and 2009 was just 104: ten years on at Old Tenisonians CC they had added 59 runs per innings); there are fewer timed games, so the maximum number of overs per bowler has decreased; and there are more bowlers able to share the load.	39	S. Snelling 2001, H. Patel 2009
	38	M. Ashton 1993
	37	M. Ashton 1994

Extras

Some strange occurrences with extras. On Sunday 1 August 2010 Gents hosted Close PF in two T20 games. The extras total was 129 on top of 77.4 legitimate overs. Excluding byes and leg-byes, 104 extra balls (17.2) had to be bowled. Somehow proceedings were finished by 7.30pm.

24.7.16	Monty Pak conceded 71 extras (w51 nb6 b11 lb3) out of 234
14.7.19	West London conceded 69 extras (w31 nb3 b32 lb3) out of 233
28.5.17	Northfields conceded 55 extras (w33 nb5 b168 lb1) out of 257
25.6.06	Gents conceded 53 extras out of 218 against London Rams
25.6.06	London Rams conceded 51 extras out of 290
25.5.14	Northfields conceded 50 extras (w34 nb7 b8 lb1) out of 250
1.8.10	Close PF conceded 48 extras (w27 nb9 b6 lb6) out of 200 (see above)
27.9.09	Hale conceded 47 extras (w25 nb14 b6 lb2) out of 247
2.6.02	Gents conceded 44 extras (inc. 26 wides) out of 227. This was a Pals League game the rules of which stated that all balls bowled wide of the leg stump were called wide.
7.9.19	Gents did not concede a single extra against Squirrels, who conceded no byes or leg byes
